Volume X X X

SUNRISE, SUNSET, SUNRISE, SUNSET,
Swiftly flow the days,
Seedlings turn overnight to sunflowers,
Blossoming even as we gaze.
SUNRISE, SUNSET, SUNRISE, SUNSET,
Swiftly fly the years;
One season following another,
Laden with happiness and tears.

We dedicate this book to those whose effort and sacrifice determined that this pictorial history would not be the final chapter.

Breakfast follows Baccalaureate

Seniors' mothers planned and prepared a breakfast which followed Baccalaureate Mass on Mother's Day, May 13. After breakfast, the class will, prophecy, and future were read.

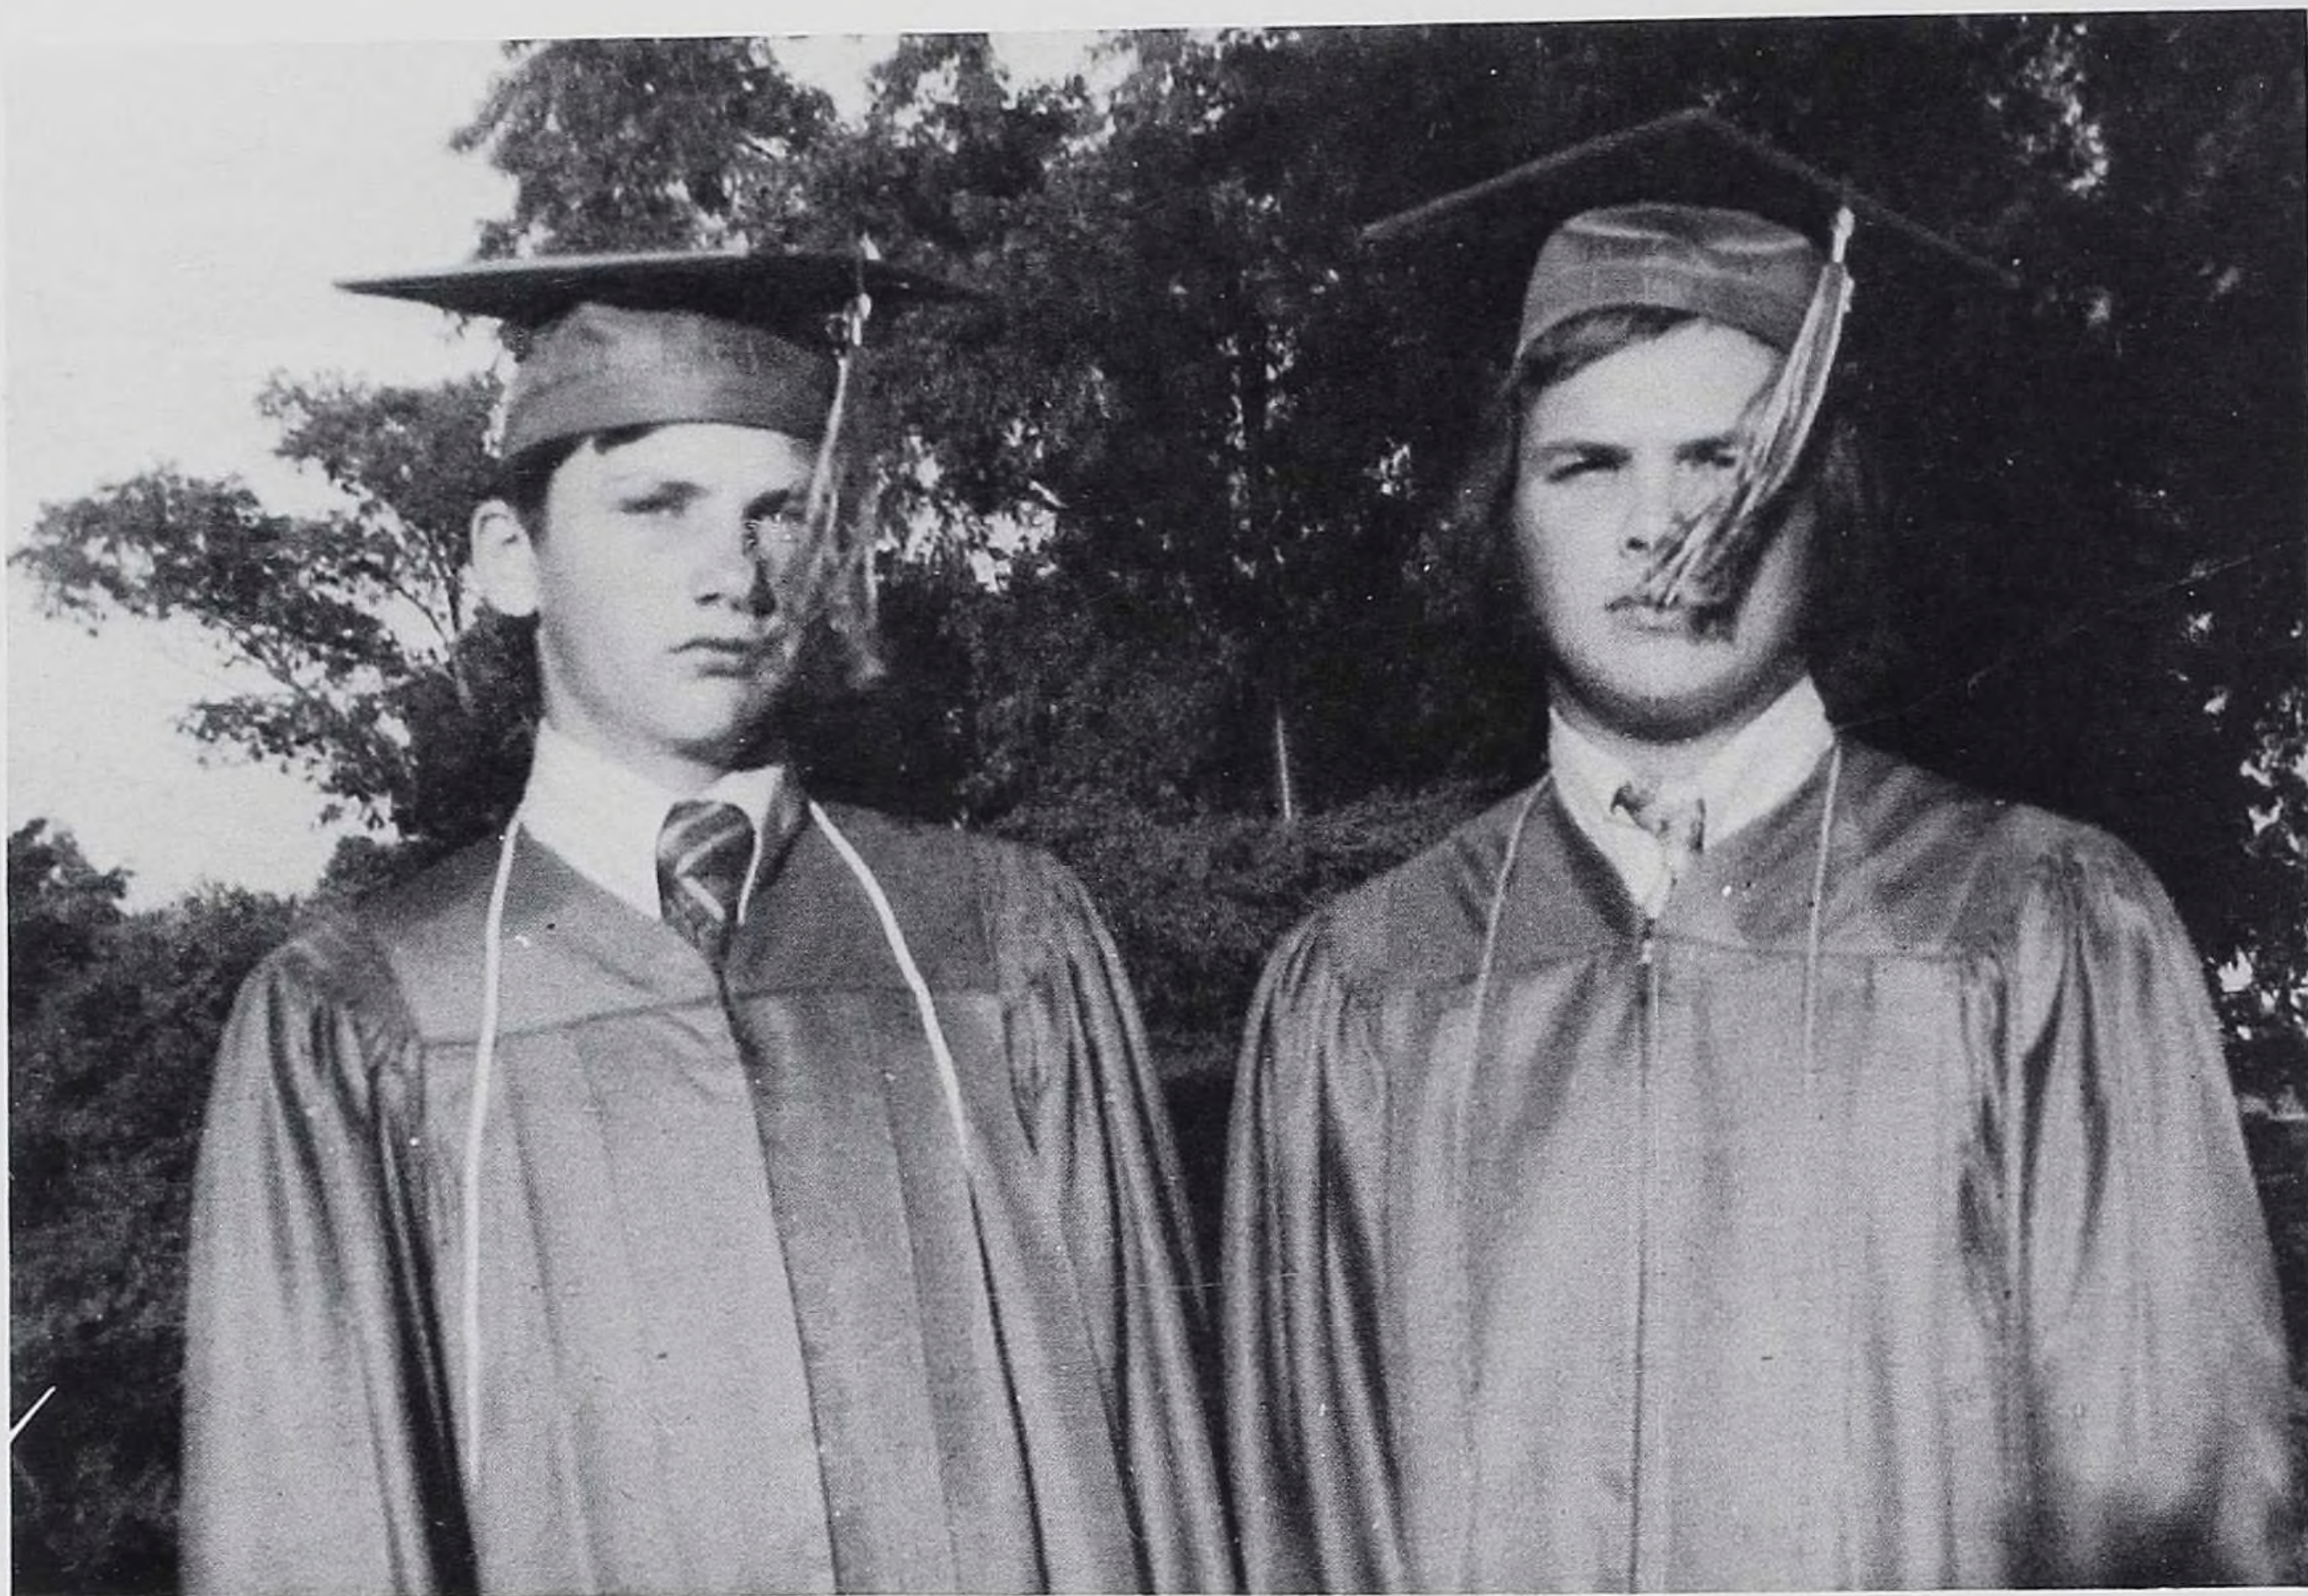

CLASS OF '73

Heideman, Wempe lead class

Wayne Heideman, valedictorian, and Mike Wempe, salutatorian, addressed those attending the graduation ceremonies for the class of '73. The guest speaker was Father Andy of Emporia. His message for the seniors was contained in his speech entitled "Sing Your Own Song". The class song "Sunrise, Sunset" was sung by the graduate class, and Father Leo presented diplomas.

HOME-EC

Two classes were offered in Home-Economics this year. The girls learned various techniques in cooking and sewing. A meal was prepared by the senior girls for the faculty and senior football boys. At the end of the year all of the girls participated in a style show.

Physical science offered

Physical science was added to the science curricula this year for those sophomores not wishing to enroll in biology. Pictured right, Kathy Burdick and Cyrilla Koch conduct an experiment with white mice.

Let me help you with that girls, ha ha HA ha!

Students competing at Omaha were Kathy Burdick, Wayne Heideman, Mary Mueting, Judy Wempe, Joe Gress, Evelyn Heideman, Steve Henry, Mike Wempe, and Kathy Gress.

Tell it like it is, Mr. S.

Math students compete at Omaha

Students competed in a math contest held at Creighton university. Wayne Heideman placed second in his class. All SPPS students ranked in the upper fifty per cent of small school competitors.

Latin students receive honors

Among the activities highlighting the year for the Latin students were the slave sale and banquet. Eight slaves were auctioned off by Terry Herrman. A banquet of pizza was served the Latin II students and their guests by those in Latin I.

The Latin students also attended the Wichita Latin Convention. Latin II students won first place in volleyball and the Latin I students won two out of three rounds in college bowl.

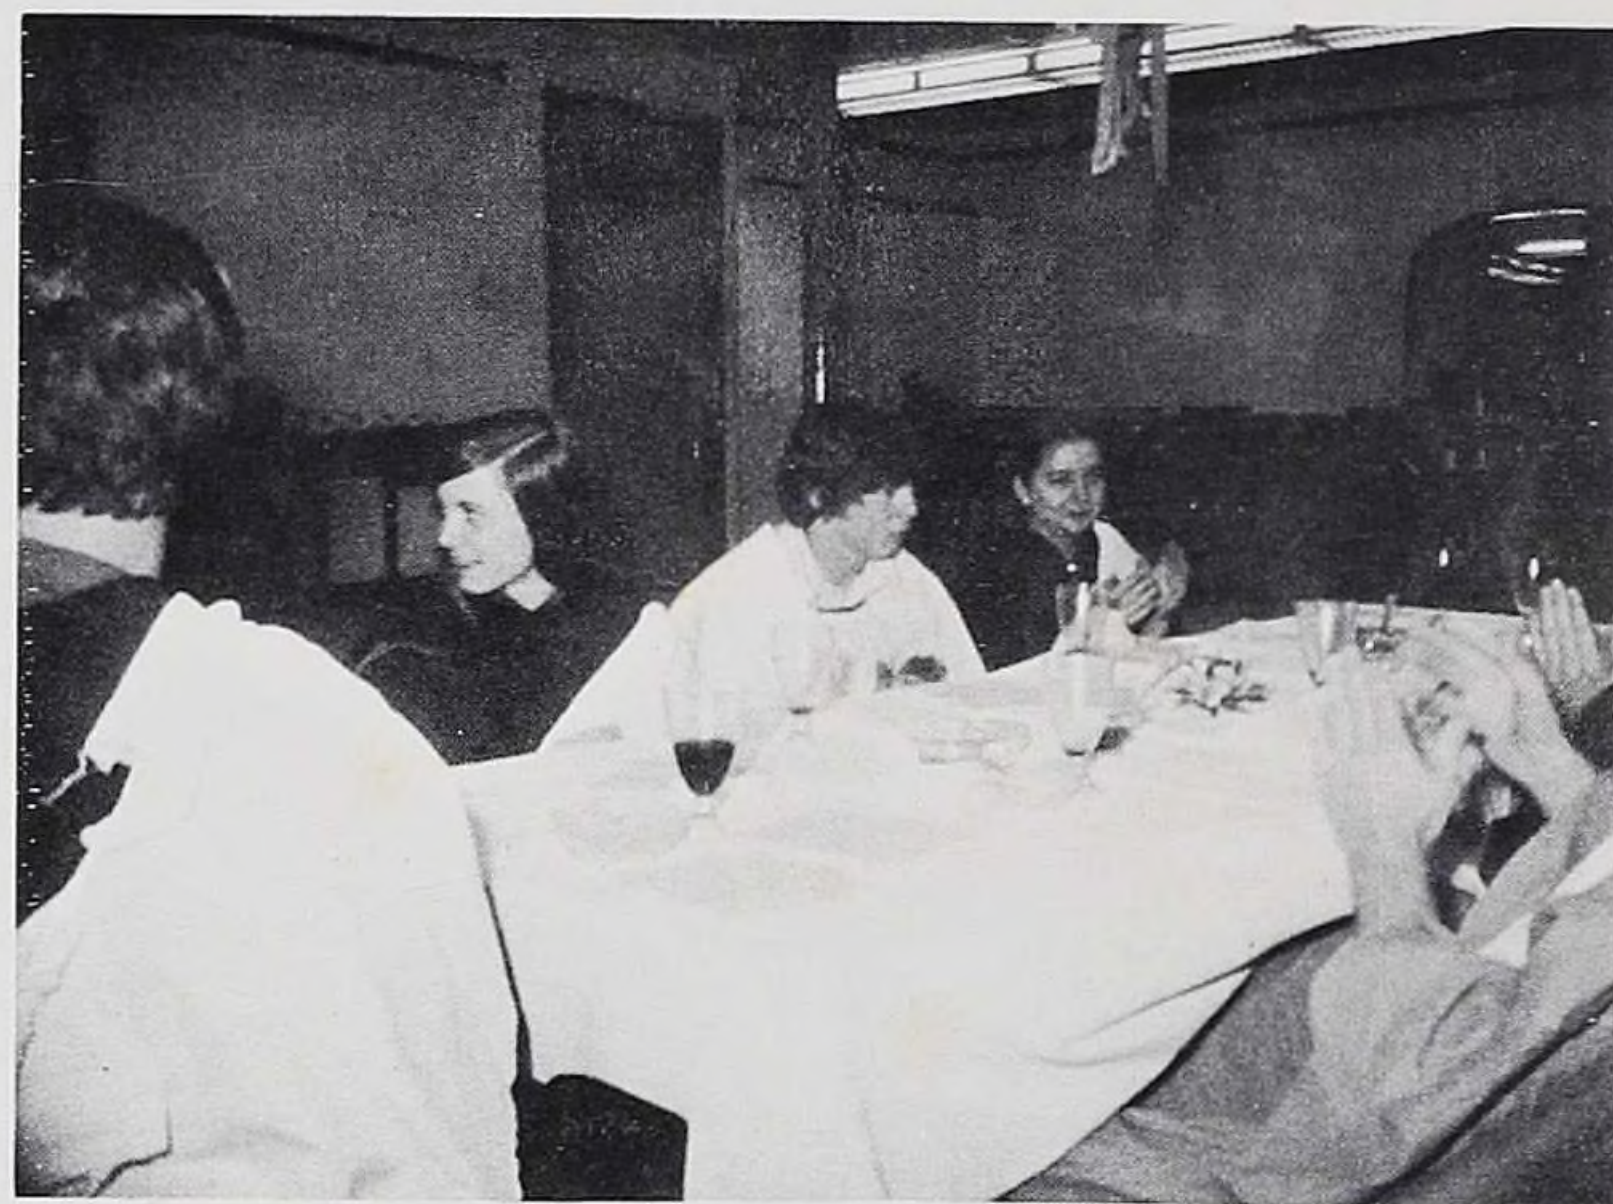

Both Latin classes also participated in a nation wide Latin Examination given by Dr. Warsley from New Jersey. Joyce Heideman received a silver medal. Certificates of recognition were given to Kathy Burdick, David Haverkamp and Mary Sue Hermesch.

Spanish students hold taco feed

Spanish students held a taco feed again this year. $49.00 was donated to the school, the rest financed a trip to Topeka. Spanish club officers were Joyce Mueeting, president; Julie Stallbaumer, vice-president; Pat Stallbaumer, secretary; and Pam Schulte, treasurer.

MINI COURSES added to English program

The English department added several six week modular offerings in addition to the traditional American and English literature courses for college bound Juniors and Seniors.

These classes range from basic "composition" to "tragedy." Mr. Cairney's journalism class published a school paper, The Trojan Head, while several of Mr. Heiman's "theatre of the absurd" students wrote original absurdist plays. The courses allowed for a more thorough study of specific aspects of Literature and language than is allowed in a comprehensive English course.

Juliet, Jamie Gudenkauf, is wooed by Romeo, Joyce Wempe.

Joanie Boeding and Randy Lang present commercial in advertising class. Sophomores evaluate fellow student's compositions.

Three teach business courses

Mrs. McGeeney, Mrs. Palmberg, and Mr. Flynn taught business courses. In addition to regular classroom activity, Mrs. McGeeney's two office practice classes published the Bulletin and worked on many other school and parish projects.

Oh, Mark! You're so silly!

Newspaper replaces text

Social science courses taught were American History, government, psychology, sociology, world changes, world history, and world cultures. The world changes class kept current on world affairs, using THE TOPEKA DAILY CAPITOL as a text.

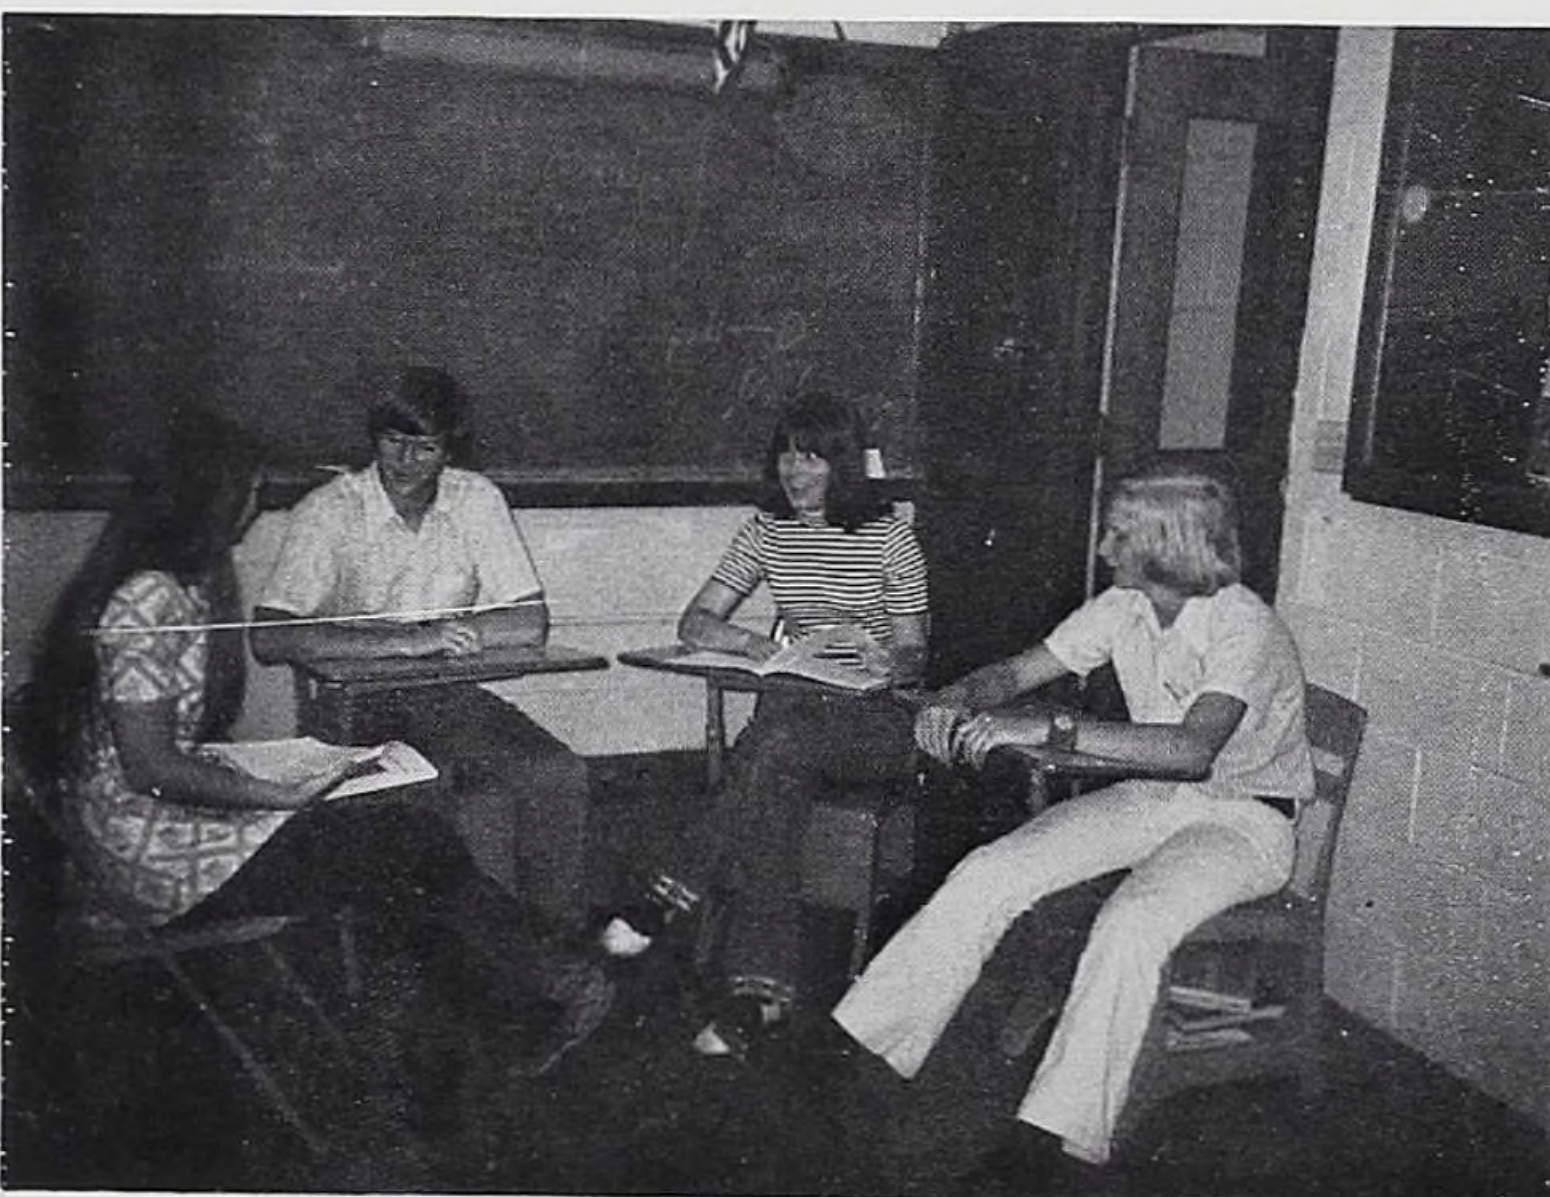

Mrs. Cairney's religion class braved the snow to march for peace.

"Call to Share" groups worked sans supervision.

Students "called to share"

Sister Gabriel and Sister Patricia provided regular weekly religious education for the high school students. Students were divided into rotating discussion and activity groups. Topics ranged from "Jesus Today" to "Understanding Your Sexuality." Mr. Hopper and Mr. and Mrs. Cairney assisted the sisters in the program.

Second semester the students were again divided into discussion groups, but this time there was no faculty moderator. The activity was part of the archdiocese "Call to Share" program. Students were selected as group leaders and reporters. The groups discussed contemporary problems with the Church and with living Christianity, reported their findings, and attempted to draw some conclusions.

This year's religious program met with mixed student reaction and SPPS continues to search for the best method of providing meaningful religious instruction.

Six inducted in NHS

Six juniors and seniors were inducted as new members into the National Honor Society this Spring. Father Charles spoke at the induction ceremony and the girls chorus sang. Short speeches on the characteristics of a NHS member were given by candidates prior to the candle-lighting ceremony.

NHS inductees: Janice Gress, Mike Wempe, Evelyn Heideman, Jerome Graney, Judy Wempe, and Ted Bergman.

Cut the singing, Art, and just get on with it.

Mini courses give semester break

Mini week provided students with a semester break again this year. From January 15th to the 19th students were offered courses and activities that are not regularly a part of the SPPS curriculum. Classes taught by faculty members included candlemaking, tie-dying, soap opera, chess, hockey, jeopardy, knitting, crocheting, auto mechanics, and brain games.

Several members of the community also offered courses. Joyce Heiman taught tie making, Theresa Rettle, tumbling, and Dr. Hermes, memory courses. Mrs. Bill Cross taught a course in painting. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Herrman and Mrs. Helen McGinty gave lectures about child care.

Students receive special awards

Many outstanding SPPS students received special honors throughout the year. Tradition was broken when senior boys took the "Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow" test. Mike Wempe placed first in the school and rated high in the state. Mary Mueting was chosen to represent SPPS in the Northeast Kansas Junior Miss Pageant at Hiawatha, while Janice Schmelzle placed second in a county art show.

Certificates from the KSHSAA to top citizens in the graduating class were awarded to Jerome Graney and Bernita Lehmkuhl. Many seniors also received college scholarships.

Students from each class won school, league, and state awards in the Emporia tests.

Mary Mueting competed in the NEK Junior Miss Pageant.

Dale Wilhelm received first in the school and third in the district in an essay contest sponsored by a local women's club.

A special award was presented to Joyce Mueting for outstanding service to the school.

SPORTS

Trojan football 1st in league

The SPPS Trojans traditionally have a strong football team and this year was no exception. The Trojan football team was co-champion in the K-36 League. Coached by Mr. Flynn, and assisted by Mr. Hopper and Mr. Cairney, the Trojans manhandled their opponents by an average of sixteen points a game. Their overall season record was 7-2. The two Trojan losses were to the Centralia Panthers by 4 points, and the Midway Eagles by 6 points in double overtime. A victory over either one of these teams would have thrust the Trojans into the limelight of the state playoffs.

HOMECOMING 72

... Debbie Kohake crowned queen

Students of SPPS were anxiously awaiting the arrival of the upcoming activities of Homecoming '72. In preparation for the spectacular events, each class carefully planned their duties as dictated by tradition. The Queen's Float was designed and constructed at McGeeney Motors by the Seniors. Also, the Seniors were in charge of creating the mountain of wood and the Wathena Wildcat quarterback to be burned at the stake in the bonfire. The Juniors were responsible for the dance and queen's throne. The football float was constructed by the Sophmores. And, of course the Freshmen made posters for the cars and floats and decorated the goal posts.

After each class conceived the brainstorm for their follies, and after a lot of work and practice, the second annual class follies were presented. Carol Lohman, Carol Becker, and Dr. A.E. Vitt consented to be judges of the follies. Once again, the class of '74 was awarded the first place trophy. Following the presentation of the trophy the A and B Team cheerleaders performed a pom pom routine to the song "The Spanish Flea". Mist fell through the cold air as everyone assembled in the street for the parade. With the police escort the route proceeded down main street and past NVHS. Cheerleaders performed cheers in front of Harshes and NV.

The bonfire, held Friday night was lit by Arlen Henry, the guest speaker. After a few words from Mr. Henry and Mr. Hopper, the students joined hands and encircled the bonfire boosting Trojan spirits. In conclusion, Mr. Flynn gave a few words as the exploding fire began to die away.

Trojan spirits were high as Saturday night game time approached. Among halftime activities taking place was the marching of Mrs. Cairney's Trojanettes on the football field. After the three candidates, Jolene Luebbe, Debbie Kohake, and Mary Mueting made their entrance on the field in the convertibles, Debbie Kohake was crowned as queen by Mr. Hopper. The new SPPS Homecoming Queen led her attendants to the float awaiting them.

The Wathena Wildcats were tamed by the mighty Trojans 21-0.

FOLLIES ... juniors first

For the second year the Class of '74 placed first in the homecoming follies. Their skit involved a Dark Ages homecoming. Queen candidates were drug onstage by their hair and the winner was crowned on the head with a club.

Using a pineapple for a football, the homecoming game resulted in a win for the Trogladites.

The second place skit was given by the sophomores. The freshmen were third and the seniors placed fourth. Judges were Carol Becker, Dr. Al Vitt, and Carol Lohman.

Graduates direct pep band

Diane Haverkamp and Myra Brinker, 1972 graduates, directed the fifteen member SPPS pep band. The band played at home basketball games, the bonfire, the homecoming parade, pep rallies, and the Christmas program.

Pep club dons new uniforms

The pep club had a new look this year. New uniforms were chosen last spring and by the first game, the girls were all donned in the duller blue with the controversial mustard knee socks.

Pep club activities included the traditional homecoming march and concession sales.

Girls tennis has winning season

The girls' tennis team made significant improvements in their second year by earning a record of 6-1-1. They hosted an invitational tournament for the first time. The girls made a respectable showing at the Girls' Regional at Independence for such a young team. Sue Henry finished in the top four in singles.

Seven girls to State track

The girls 440 relay placed third and Sue Henry received a fifth place medal at the State IA Girls Track Meet. The state tournament ended a very successful season for the 16-member squad. During the season they won the Onega and Seneca Invitationals, K-36 League, duel with Centralia and quadrangular with Bern, B&B, and N.V. The girls also attended the Centralia and North Central Invitationals.

Pam Lackey received 19 medals this year, Terry Heideman, 13; Jean Strathman, 11; Sue Henry, eight; Mary Jane Block, seven; Linda Boeding and Jean Gress, five; Barb Kohake and Jamie Gudenkauf, four; Kathleen Gress, Evelyn Heideman, and Mary Sue Hermes, two; and Jeanne Ronnebaum, one.

The following school records were broken or tied: Pam Lackey, 220 yd. dash; Linda Boeding, 440 yd. dash; Sue Henry, 100 yd. hurdles, softball throw, and 50 yd. hurdles; and Evelyn Heideman, shot and discus. Records in the 880 relay and the medley relay were also broken. On the 880 relay were Terry Heideman, Barb Kohake, Mary Jane Block, and Pam Lackey. Jean Gress, Jamie Gudenkauf, Mary Sue Hermes, and Linda Boeding were in the medley relay.

Receiving third place state medals in the 440 yd. relay were Linda Boeding, Mary Jane Block, Terry Heideman, and Pam Lackey.

Sue Henry placed fifth in the state in the softball throw.

5 sr., 2 soph. in boys' track and field

Five seniors and two sophomores composed the SPPS track team this year. The team travelled to the state indoor meet at Manhattan, the North Central Invitational, Horton Invitational, Centralia Invitational, Highland Night Relays, Highland League, and the regional at Manhattan.

Golf reinstated

The SPPS Golf Team: Kim Osterhaus, Keith Olberding, Rick Olberding, Roger Koch, Brian Schulte, Glen Lackey.

Seniors win field day competition

Seniors won the annual field day competition by almost 100 points. Final tally was seniors, 294½; sophmores, 204; juniors, 176; and freshman, 174. There was no handicap given any clan this year which put the freshman with only six boys at a serious disadvantage.

The track, field, and team sports ran the entire day instead of the limited afternoon of competition held last year. Events were divided into boy and girl competition with mixed groups in relay.

Students compensated for the warmth of the day by engaging in unlimited friendly battle; weapons were water guns and water balloon bombs. Others basqued in the sun, returning next day with new skin tones and new walks.

I thought Mr. Hopper said he would not allow any hippies to infest our school.

Is it Donald Duck, or Gomer Pyle, or the Hunchback of Notre Dame, or is it just plain Jolene Luebbe?

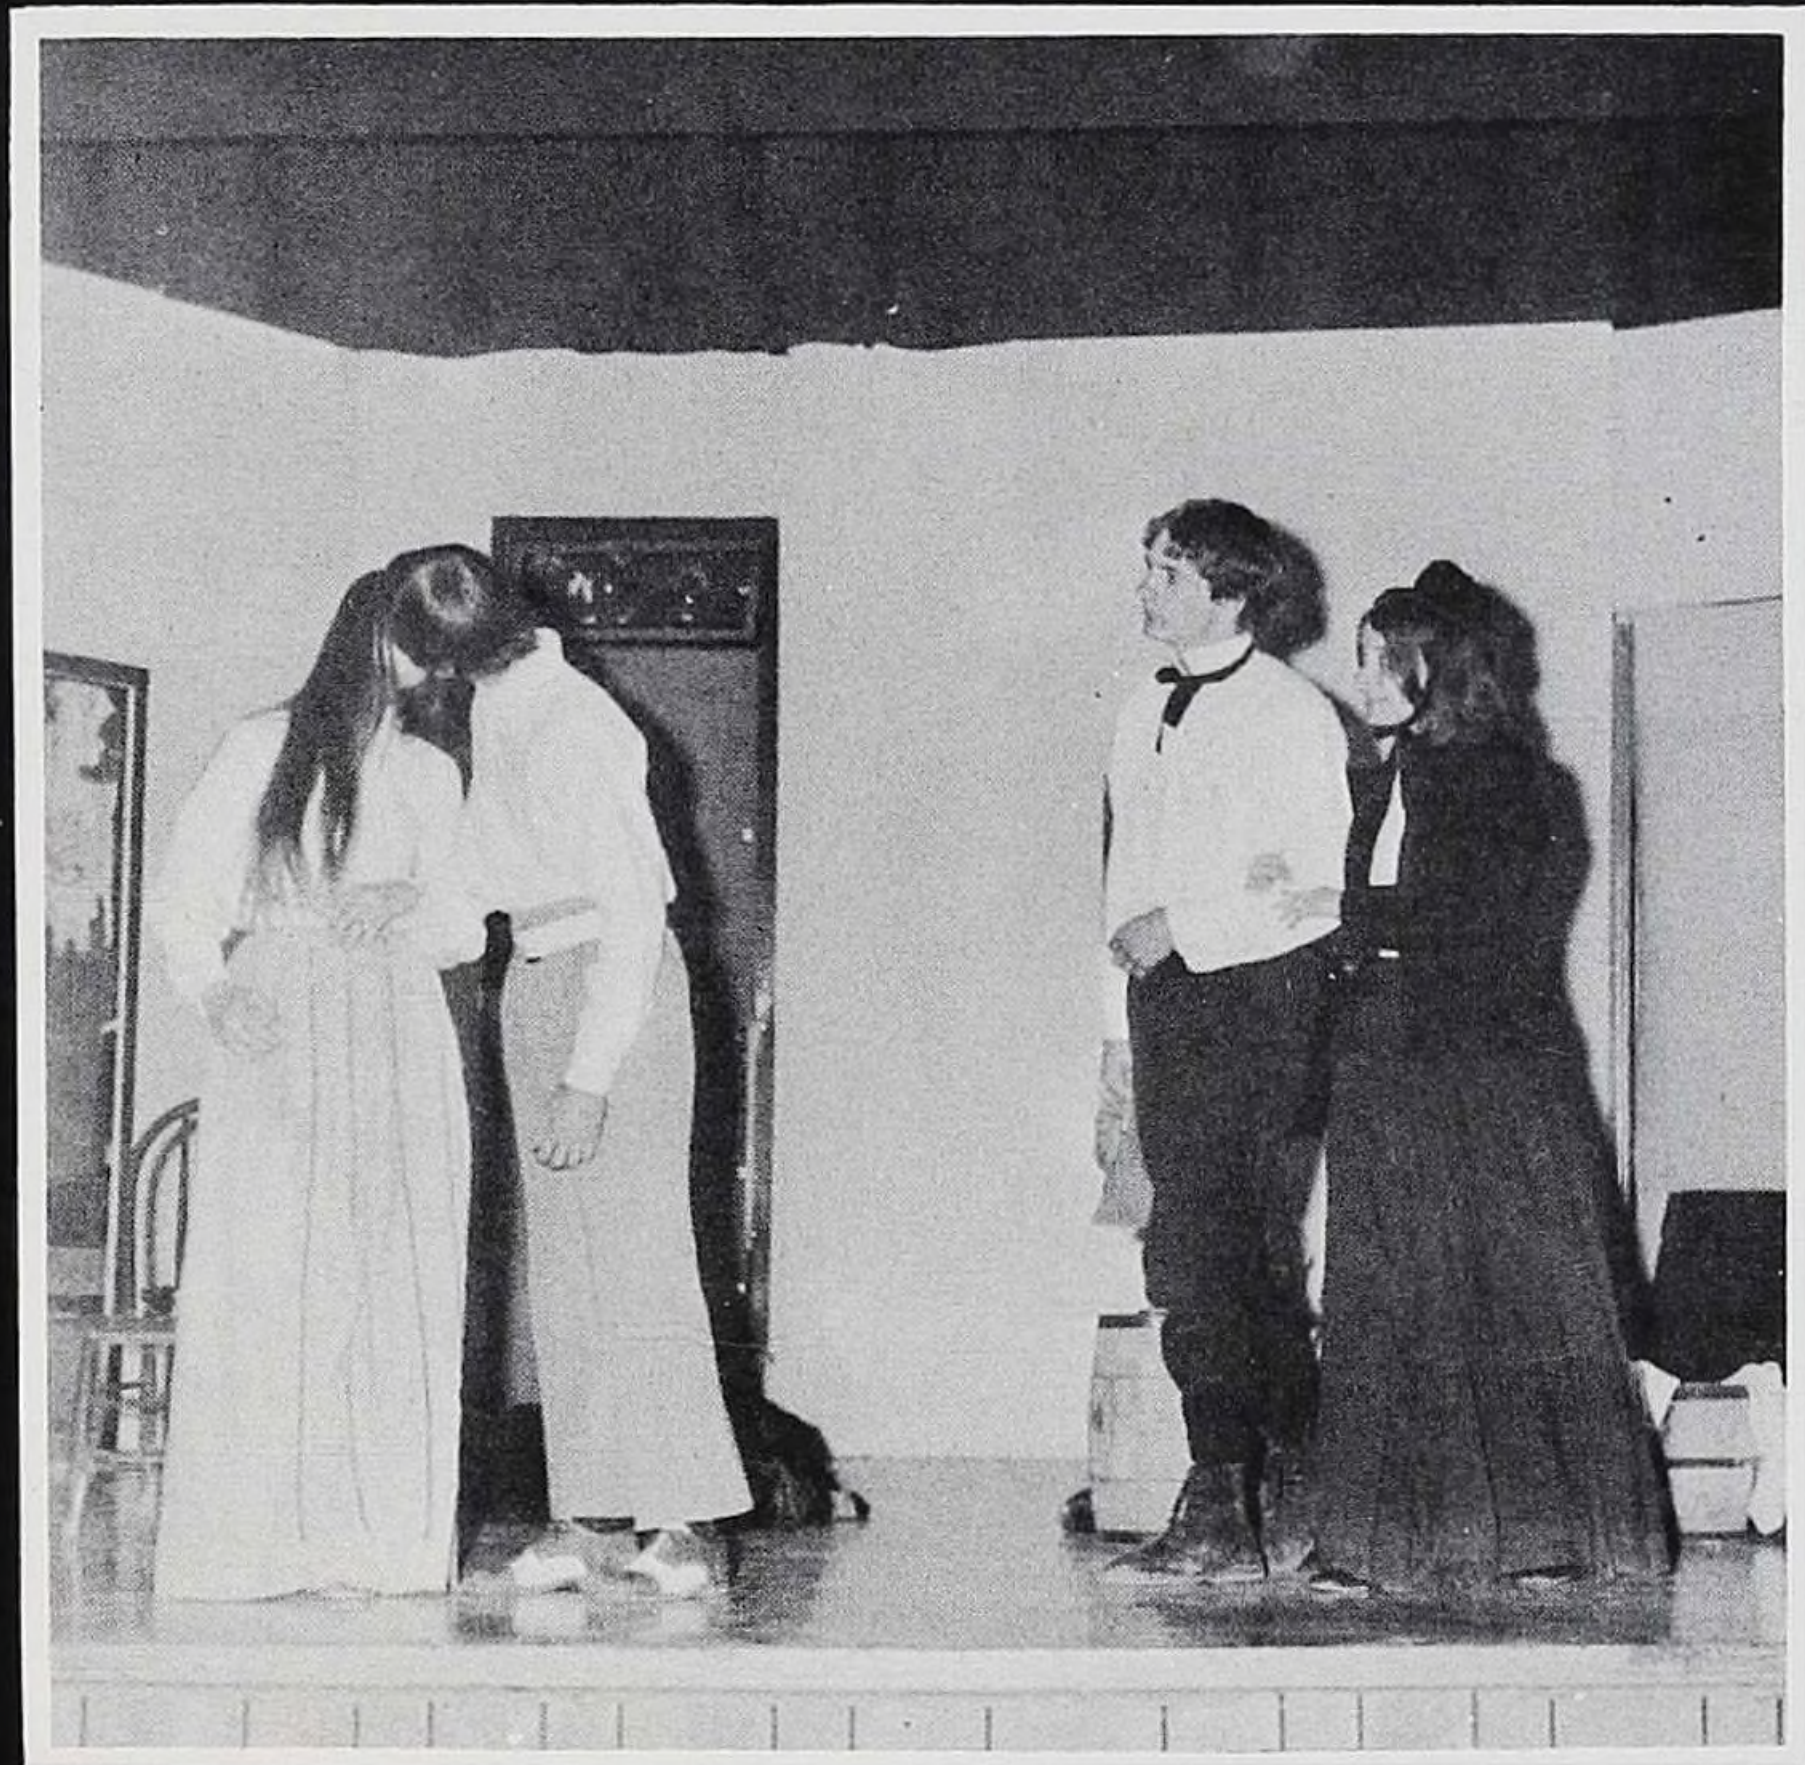

In this game the seniors got a technical for jumping out of line, but placed second any way.

This one little girl looks like she is about pooped out.

SPEECH & DRAMA

Education finance debated

The debate squad was composed of twelve students. This year's question was RESOLVED: THAT GOVERNMENTAL FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF ALL PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN THE UNITED STATES SHOULD BE PROVIDED EXCLUSIVELY BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. Debaters attended tournaments at Ottawa, Olathe, Concordia, Manhattan, Topeka, Osage City, and Wamego. The cross examination format replaced the standard style debate this year.

"Why Betsy! You're a traitor to your SEX"

"And now you're taking off my tr-, my tremendously starched shirt."

"Whatever you said to Lily, I'll make you beg her pardon."

DRAMA DEPT. STAGES 3-ACT

On April 26 and 27 the SPPS drama department staged a production of the three-act old-fashioned melodrama, LILY, THE FELON'S DAUGHTER.

The play was presented in a box set and with period costumes. Turn of the century music enhanced the standard melodrama plot.

Over three hundred persons attended the play which was directed by Mr. Don Heiman.

"Now isn't that where hands belong? Not at throats."

How is mama's little tootsie darling wootsie, huh?

"Oh, Jonas, it reminds me of our wedding day nigh onto thirty years ago."

"Daddy wouldn't buy me a bow-wow."

ACTIVITIES

Miss Xmas crowned at assembly

The 1972 Christmas program was a variety of skits and music. Playing Santa, Mark Kramer narrated the show which included skits by Mr. Cairney's speech classes and the eighth graders. The girls chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Vitt, sang two numbers and the pep band played between skits. The program ended with the debaters' skit, a mock beauty pageant in search of Miss Xmas. Joanie Boeding, "Miss Tree", was crowned winner.

Ted Bergman and Larry Koch, photographers.

Jo Ann Sudbeck, copy editor

Yearbook expanded

This edition of THE TROJAN is eight pages larger than usual. The expansion allows additional space for a more attractive ad layout. Staff members worked on the yearbook outside of school. Work began by selling ads and organizing the TROJAN drive. Seniors won the drive and received an extra day of Thanksgiving vacation. Second semester the staff was busy writing, typing, and pasting pages.

"Color My World" theme of prom

"Color My World" was the theme for this years junior-senior prom held May 4. The theme was carried out in blue and gold. A revolving chandelier illumined by a light wheel cast multicolored shadows throughout the hall. Underneath was a fountain pool surrounded by a white fence. An enclosed archway led the couples onto the dance floor, which was divided from the tables and chairs by crepe paper streamers. The theme was played by the band, "Stonehenge", while Mr. Schneider announced the couples.

They put the cap back on when they saw that we were going to take a picture.

The punch was a big hit at the prom. (PUN)

Who would ever have thought it of Peter?

"Surely you don't have a headache already!"

"Maybe if I sit here real quiet he'll ask me to dance!"
 "Why doesn't somebody do something?"

Kathy looks content and we all know how Rog felt.

Girls make box lunches

After much debate and discussion, the student body voted to have the girls make the box lunches again this year. Some liberationists were contending that the gents should be given the honor since all they could do was complain about the meals prepared by the girls.

The event was held on November 20, and netted $89.50 for the mission benefits.

My how time flies when you're having fun.

Mmmm.....Tastes so good you hate to put it down.

But the hat doesn't go with the dress.

Meet my pal Harold.

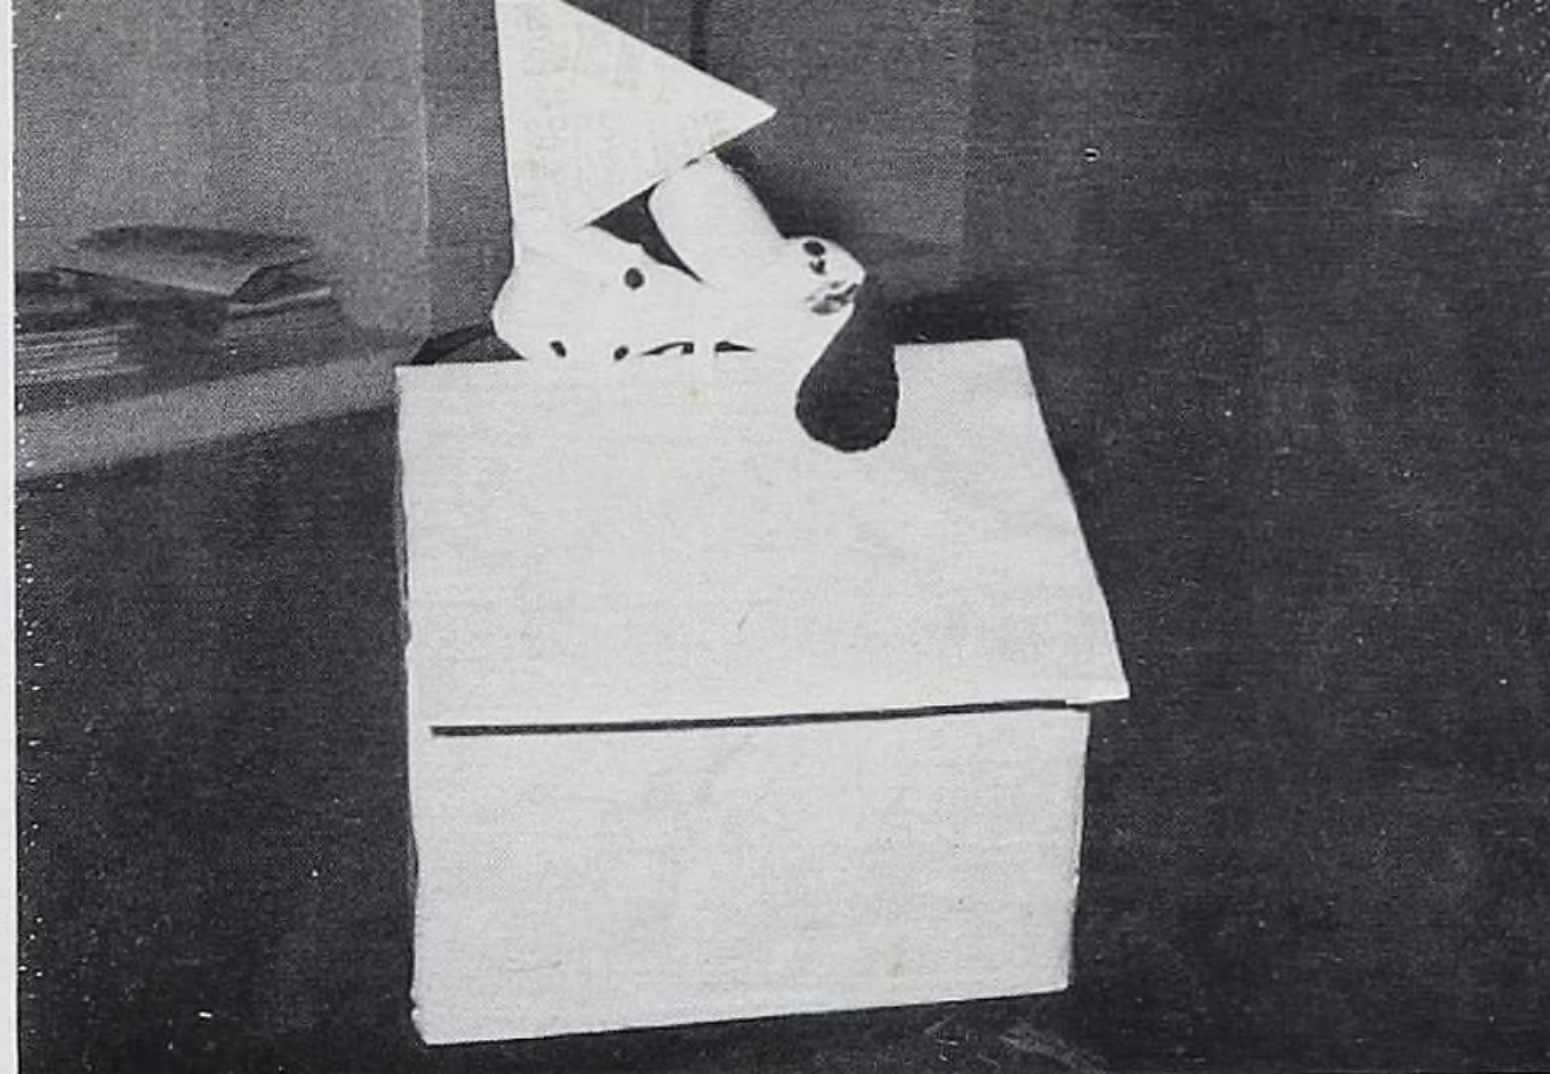

Gross out.

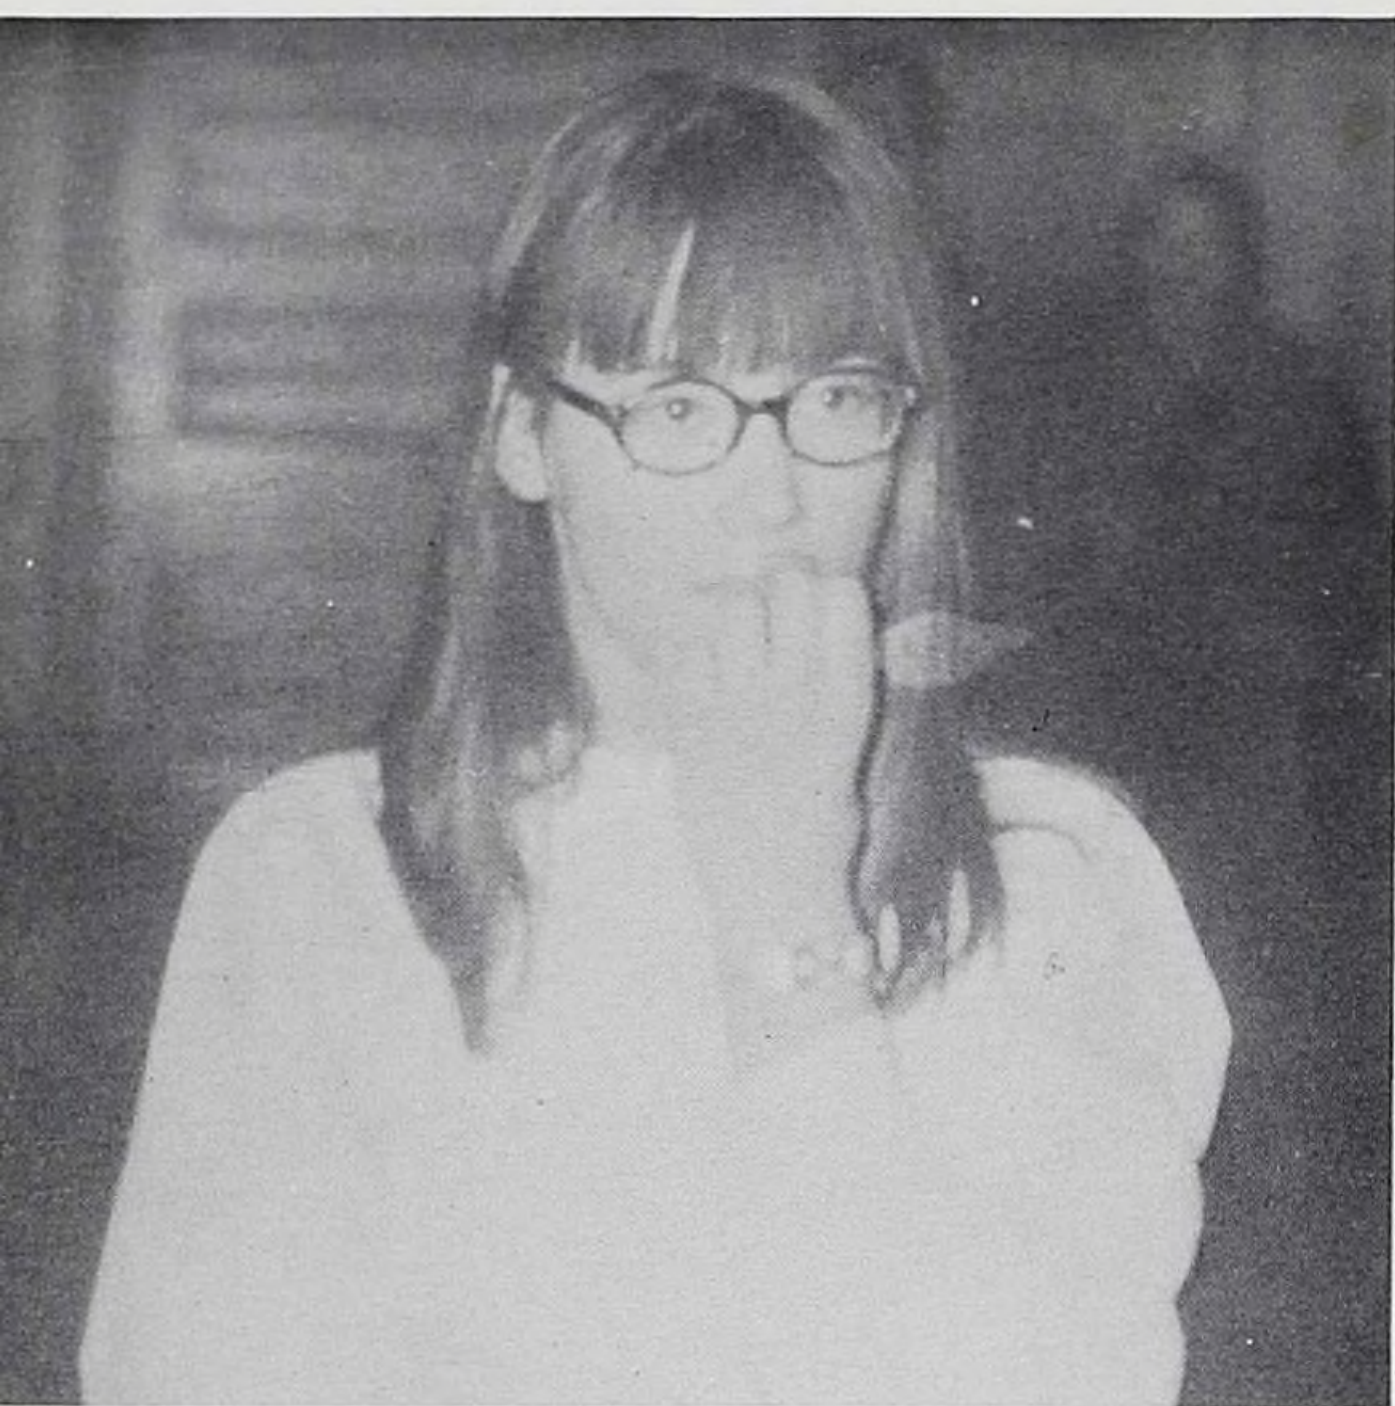

Next year's champion jump roper.
Marty?, Marty?

Isn't it about time to leave?
Joanie says it goes like this.

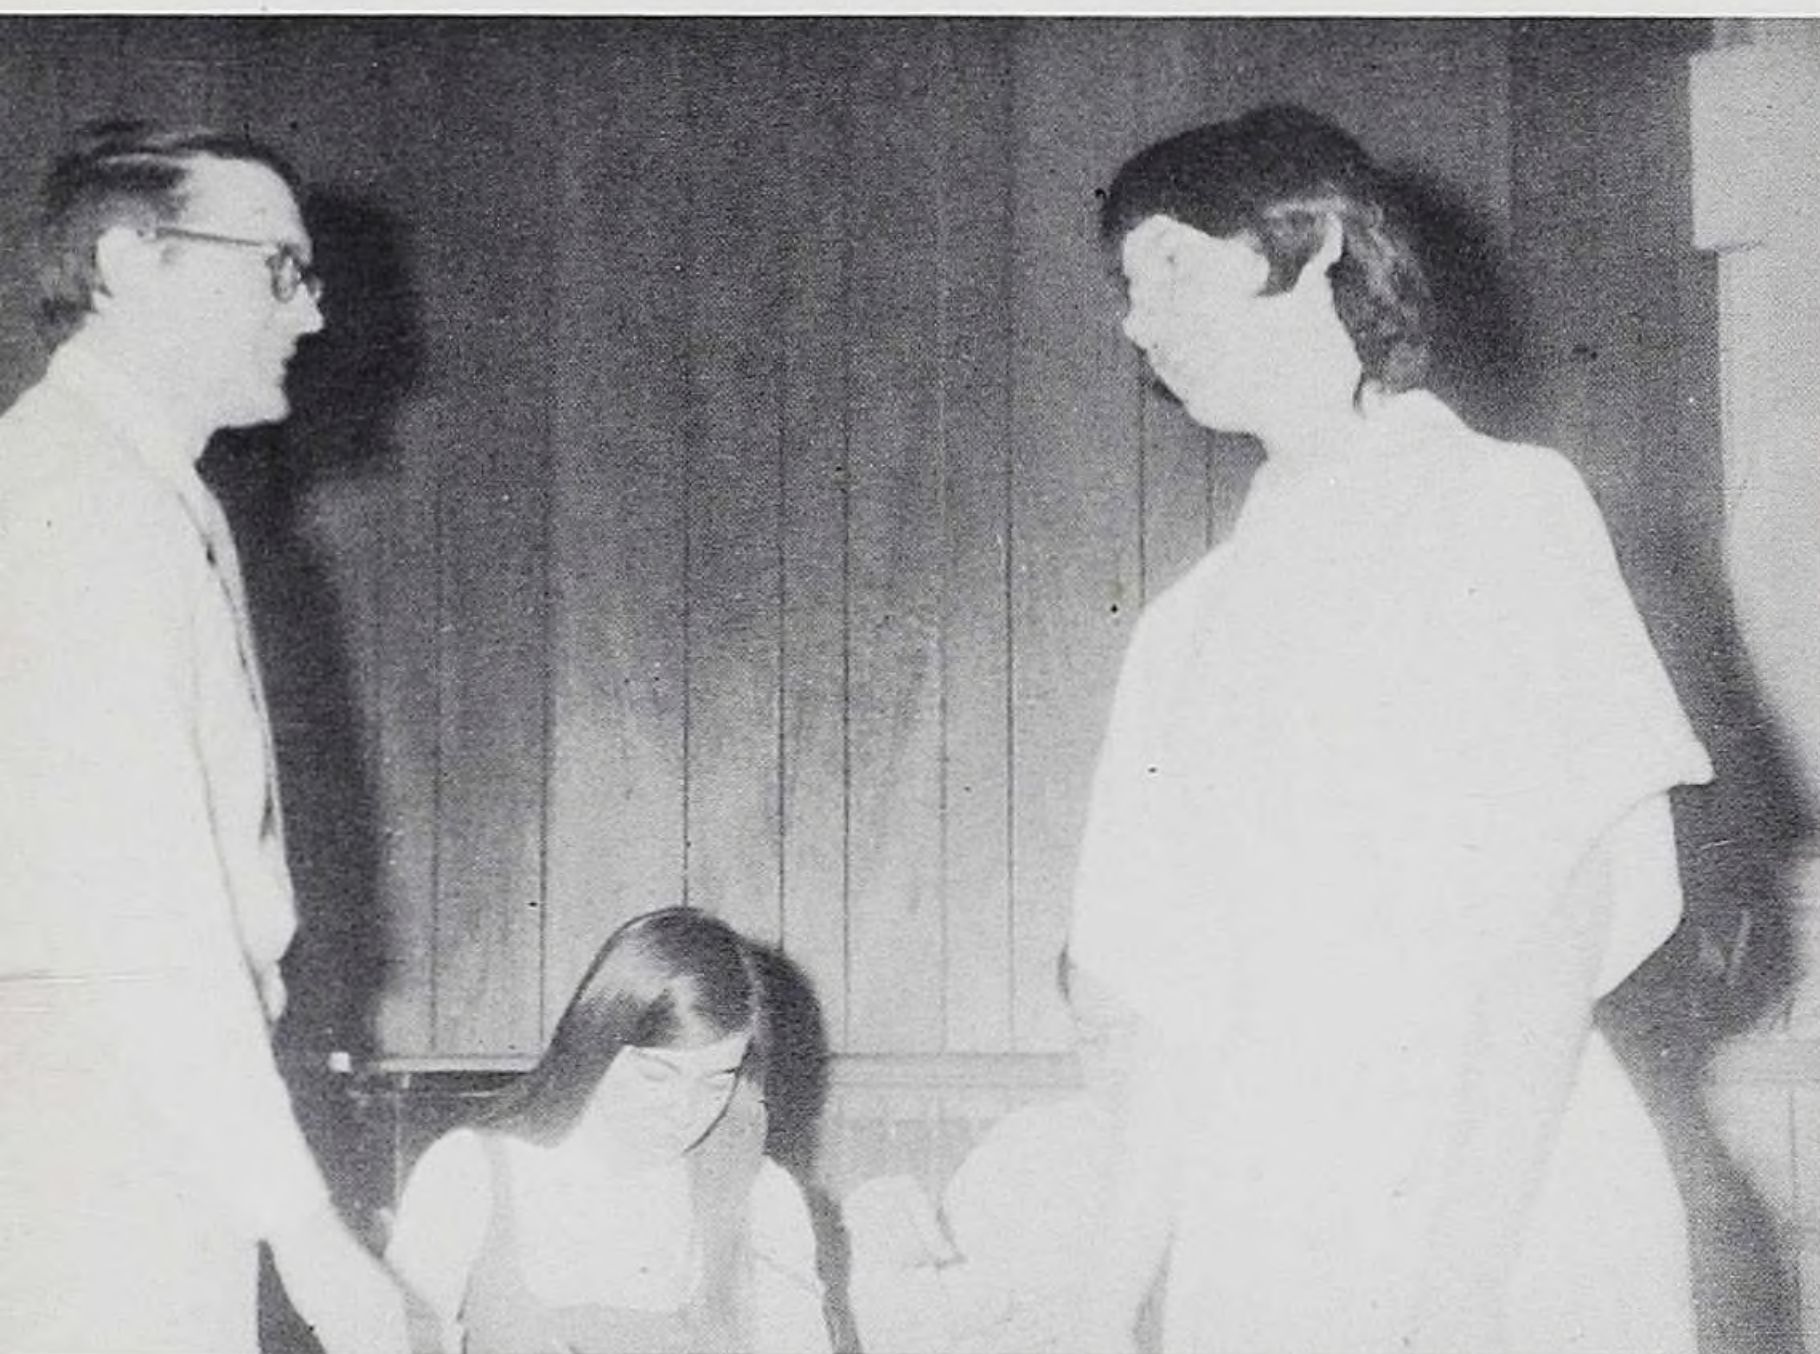

But I didn't mean it Sister'...

Now here's some advice, girls ...

Do you think she will see me?

Hi, Pam.

Look at the legs on her.

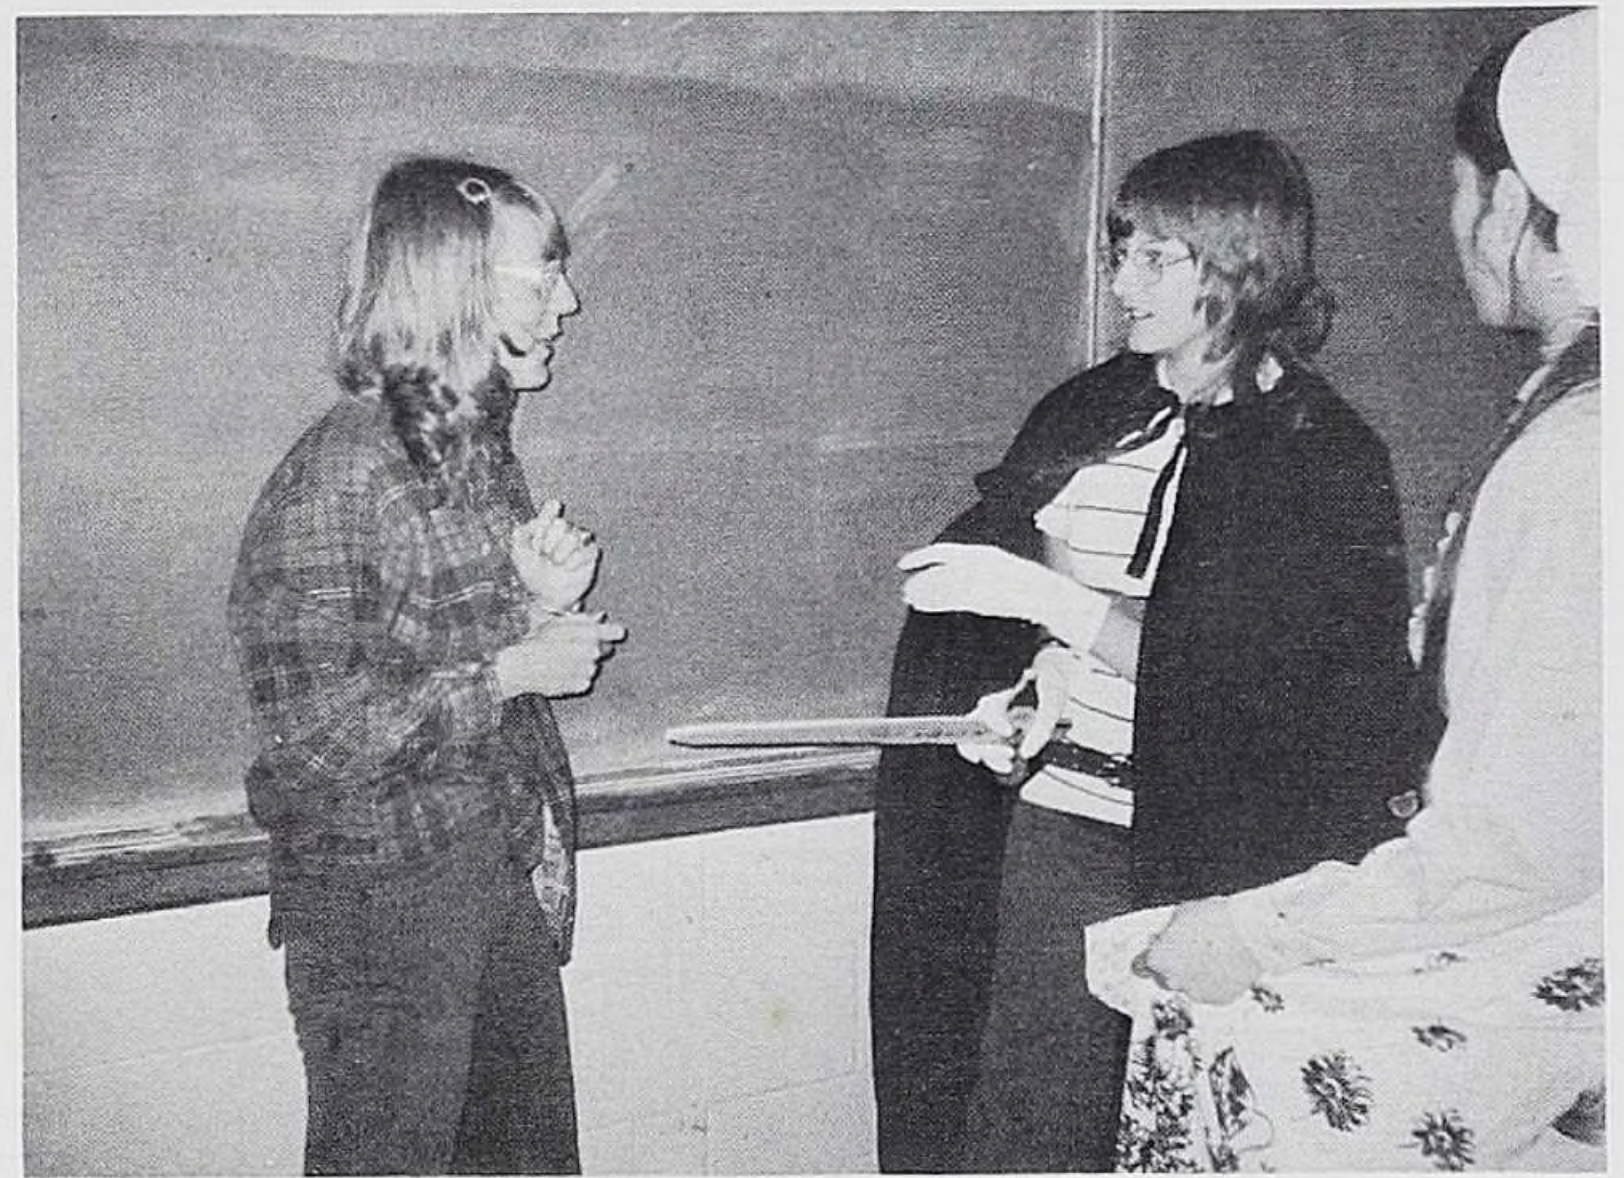

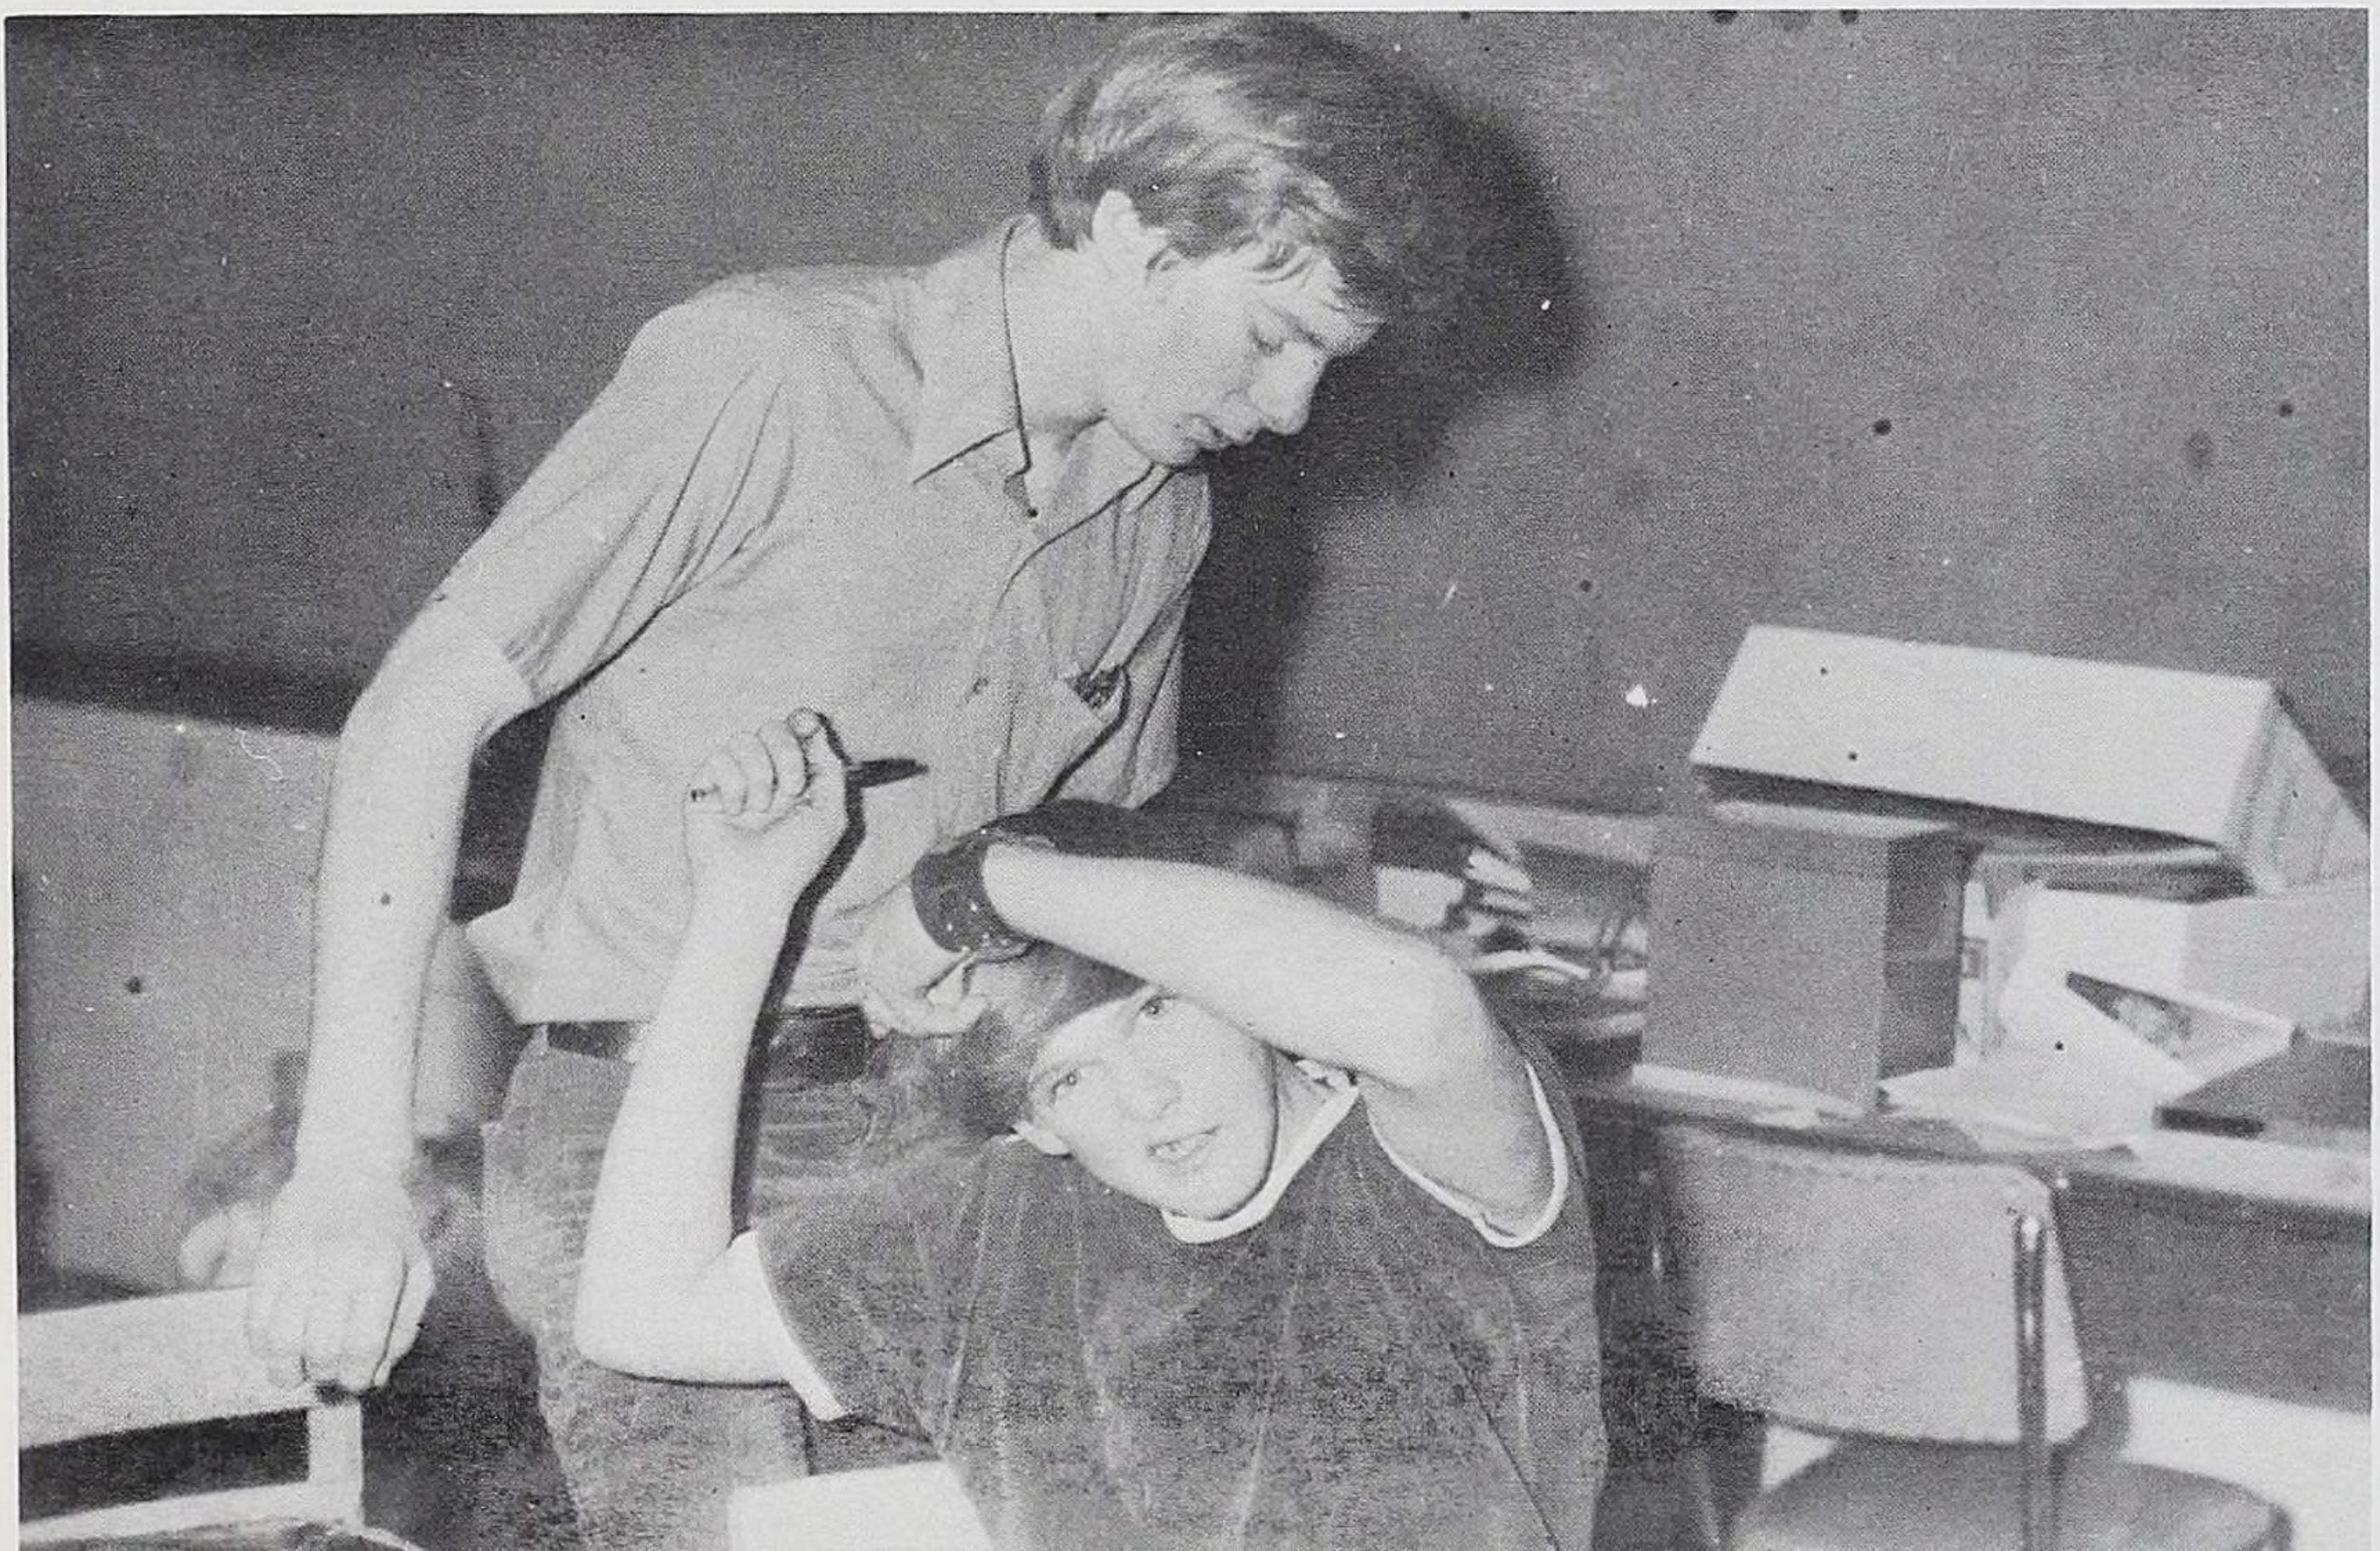

I found the cootie, Ted.

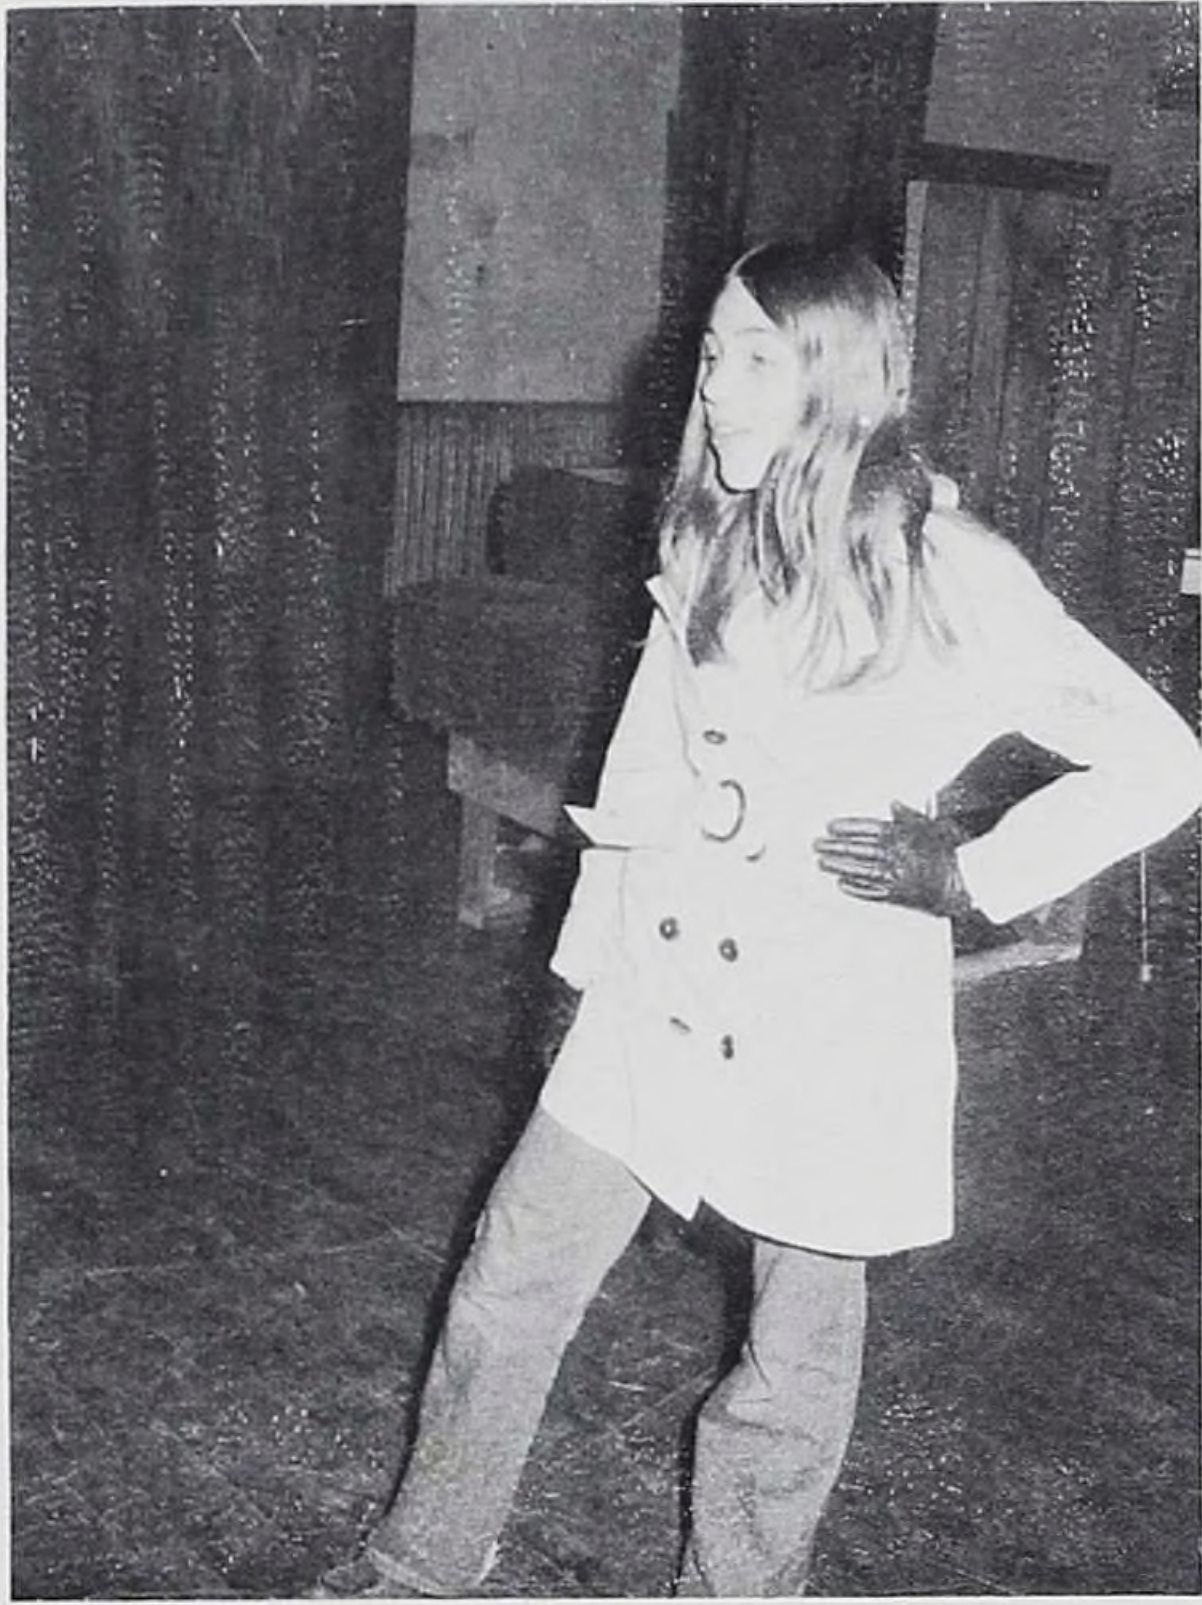

The knitting's not bad, but these dresses ...

Is that a threat?

Agent 99 reporting for duty.

Who's the horse's a__?

Now, now, Boys! Lets be good losers!
